Missouri Auto Auction takes Top Auction Award for 2nd Year in a Row!

Columbia, MO - Missouri Auto Auction is proud to announce that it has received the Auction of the Year award, for the 2nd consecutive year, from United Auto Credit Corporation.

For the second consecutive year, Missouri Auto Auction has taken the top award from United Auto Credit Corporation (UACC), beating out 43 other locations across the country. Scott Mousaw, Director of Loss Prevention and Remarketing commented, "Missouri Auto Auction is a great partner for United Auto Credit. The service and most importantly, the results have kept them in the top spot for the last two years."

"I am so proud of our team," stated Missouri Auto Auction owner Cody Boswell. "Every day we go to work with one mission: to make sure our customers are well cared for and satisfied with all the products and services we provide. This award reflects their hard work, commitment and dedication."

Justin Brown, General Manager of the auction stated, "We are very honored to win this award and hope to continue our growth through 2020. In addition to our success with UACC, we have experienced a great increase to our dealer consignment and commercial business." Brown went on to say, "we have a great auction and are looking forward to continued success in 2020."

Missouri Auto Auction is a proud partner of the AMS auction network and their continued support in growing the UACC relationship. AMS was created with a focus of partnering with independent auctions to assist in developing their business, helping them to maximize their footprint in the market, and to increase profitability.
