Toyota Financial Services Honors Primeritus with Recovery Award

Nashville, Tennessee – Primeritus Financial Services is pleased to announce they were the first supplier to receive the Recovery Services Excellence Award from Toyota Financial Services (TFS). This is Toyota’s most recent supplier recognition program for fiscal year 2018. The program is intended to drive performance results in a competitive spirit amongst Toyota’s recovery service vendors. The award recognizes a vendor’s performance in results, compliance, and overall partnership, and includes a trophy that travels quarterly for display in each recipient’s home office.

"It's truly an honor to have been the first to receive the ‘Recovery Services Excellence Award’ from TFS," said Scott Peters, President and CEO. "But it's far from an individual achievement. This award is a testament to the combined power of great vendor and lender partnerships, and a values-driven culture within Primeritus. We're eager to continue advancing our continuous process and technology improvements and playing a meaningful role within the industry."

“We continue to lead our industry with our ‘best in class’ compliance programs, data driven technology and integrations, along with our proven process management philosophy,” said Mike Thomas, SVP Operations and CIO of Primeritus Financial Services. “It is a privilege to be partnered with and recognized by an organization as prestigious as the Toyota brand.”

“We are humbled and honored to be the first to receive this award from Toyota Financial Services,” said Justin Conners, VP of Sales and Client Services with Primeritus Financial Services. “Toyota sets a high standard for its suppliers, and the team was able to deliver by exceeding their expectations. This award validates our successful partnership with TFS.”
