

National Auto Auction Association

2019 SAFETY SUMMIT

General & Workshop Sessions

Date: February 20-21 (Wednesday and Thursday) Location: Omni Dallas Hotel Park West
1590 LBJ Parkway, Dallas, TX 75234

Room Rate: $160 per/night
Rooms Available Tuesday and Wednesday Nights

Reservations: 1-800-843-6664
Reservation Cut-Off Mon., January 21 ID: NAAA Safety Summit

Contact: Tricia Heon, Chief Operating Officer theon@naaa.com, (301) 696-0400

AGENDA

DAY 1 – Wednesday, February 20

Attendee Morning Arrival

Lunch 12:00 PM–1:00 PM

Introduction Opening Chad Bailey, NAAA President

General Session:	1: 00 PM–2:00 PM	Safety – State of the Industry a. How are we doing? b. What are our challenges? c. What works vs. What doesn't work d. Sharing safety solutions
	2: 00 PM–3:00 PM	Safety Guidelines a. Additions b. Updates
	3:00 PM–3:30 PM	Break
	3:30 PM–4:30 PM	Aging Drivers – What is the correct answer? a. Determine the best way to address the challenge and reduce the risk of sale day accidents
	5:30 PM	Attendee Reception
	6:00 PM	Dinner with Guest Speaker, Jim Smith, M.S., CSP Regional Leader-Loss Control/Safety Services Arthur J. Gallagher Risk Management Services, Inc.

© 2019 KAR Auction Services, Inc. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

DAY 2 – Thursday, February 21

Attendee Breakfast: 7:00 AM–8:00 AM

General Session:	8:00 AM–9:00 AM	Lane Safety a. Stanchion/Barriers – Should industry test concept for 6-9 months and report results? b. Exit Lane Extensions – Should this be considered a recommended safety guideline?
	9:00 AM–11:00 AM	OSHA 101 – Are auctions meeting the basic OSHA requirements? Provide an industry-wide resource (primer) to help member auctions ensure they are compliant with OSHA requirements.
	11:00 AM–12:00 PM	What's Next? Where are we heading with industry safety? a. Discuss trends – Deeper training for site management. b. Desired outcome – Develop and/or improve department/job specific training and manager safety training.
	12:00 PM–12:30 PM	Open Discussion