Central Auto Auction Hires New Auction Manager

New Haven, CT – Central, Inc. d/b/a Central Auto Auction announced earlier this month that Anthony Jasiak has been hired as its new Auction Manager.

Jasiak brings more than 25 years of experience to the team, starting his career as the AGM with ADESA New Jersey and most recently at the General Manager of Grand Strand Auto Auction in South Carolina. “Anthony’s strong sales and operation experience is just what we need at Central Auto Auction” commented Peter Saldamarco, President of Central Auto Auction. “We look forward to having him be a key asset within the organization “.

In his new role at Central AA he will oversee the day-to-day operations which include dealer sales, commercial sales and lot operations. “I am very excited to be a part of the Central AA team. They have an established brand here and I hope to continue with the direction and success they have experienced over the year,” Anthony said.

Peter Saldamarco, President of Central AA commented, “We are honored to have someone with the experience and industry knowledge that Anthony has join our team. I have all the confidence that Anthony will continue to assist us elevating us to the next level.”

Central Auto Auction was founded in 2006 and operates on over 10 acres, with 4 lanes, and offers full reconditioning, including mechanical, in-house transportation, title services, AutoIMS and Velocicast. For more information, please visit www.centralaa.com
